SAINT PETER'S, LICK RUN
SCIOTO COUNTY, OHIO
1849-1880

Catholicity in Scioto county, Ohio, extends back to the early years of the 19th century. It is true that Mass was celebrated there for the first time in 1749 by Father Bonnacamp who accompanied Celeron on his famous expedition down the Ohio River (1). Later, in 1812, the Rev. Stephen Badin celebrated Mass in Portsmouth while on his way from Baltimore to Bardstown. Most likely Mass was celebrated in the area from time to time during the succeeding years by passing Missionaries. Father Badin's last visit was in 1835.

While the Ohio Canal was being built in 1831, it became apparent that there should be a church in Portsmouth. Many of the laborers on the canal were immigrant Catholics. But it was not until 1842 that a parish was organized when Father Joseph J. O'Mealy came to be pastor. The first church was built in 1844, and was known as Nativity church.

Meanwhile Catholics were settling in the Ohio valley around Portsmouth, particularly eastward toward Ironton. They were mostly German immigrants who had come to work in the iron and coal mines. The priest in Portsmouth at the time visited them in their places of labor. Among the various furnaces visited by the priest were Clinton, Monroe, Scioto, Union and Junior in Scioto county; Latrobe and Eagle in Vinton county, and Washington in Lawrence county. Mass was celebrated in the homes of the people until the church was built in Portsmouth. Thereafter the people went there.

Father O'Mealy's records show that during 1842-1844 he attended a number of missions: Pine Grove furnace, Ripley, Lick Run, Union Furnace, French Grant, Wheelersburg, Haverhill (French Grant), Little Scioto (Lilly), Aberdeen West Union, Gallia county, and Greenup in Kentucky.

Evidence that Catholicity at Lick Run was almost as old as that of Portsmouth is deduced from the fact that Father O'Mealy visited there in 1843, and listed the following Easter Communicants for that mission: Eberhard Friske, Gerard Rolf, Henry Lipker, Christ. Fred. Lipker, Erhart Friske, Joan Mossman, Eliza Lipker, Luitgard Mossman, Miss Wiesman, --- Friske and Catharine Enslein.

Also in 1843, Father O'Mealy recorded one Lick Run baptism. On April 22, 1843, he baptised John, son of Erhart Friske and ---- Dimmerman (wife). The sponsors were ---- Rolf and Elisabeth Dieker. Later, on August 14, he baptised Catharine Elisabeth, daughter of Henry Lipker and Catharine Endoff. Sponsors were Herad (?) Rolf and Elisabeth Dieker. Two more baptisms were recorded for Lick Run on Jan. 30, 1845: Francis Henry and Erhard Frederick, both sons of Erhard Friske and Angelica Dimmerman.

Already in 1849 it was thought advisable to plan for a church in the Lick Run area. On August 8 of that year Evert Friske and his wife, Mary, donated to John B. Purcell, bishop of Cincinnati, two acres of land on their farm for a church and cemetery. The property was located on Lick Run in Porter township, north of the present Wheelersburg. The Deed stated that "for and in consideration of our attachment and devotion to the Roman Catholic Church and in consideration of the sum of one dollar to us paid, Mr. and Mrs. Friske transferred the parcel of land to "Right Reverend John Baptist Purcell, Roman Catholic Bishop of Cincinnati..... for the exclusive purpose of erecting thereon a Roman Catholic Church and to be used as a Grave yard only for the members of the aforesaid Church." The property was located on the top of a hill, difficult of access. The Deed provided for a right of way to the public road (2).

By 1850 some eleven Catholic families had settled in the Lick Run area. The names of some of these pioneers were Eberhard Friske, Henry Lipker, Michael Delabar, John Mossman, Christopher Flanagan, Louis Deutromont, Mrs. Abigail Cranston, Gerhard Rolf, John H. Riepenhoff and John Kundel.

Father Emmanuel Thienpont, a Belgian, had become pastor of Nativity church in Portsmouth in November, 1845. It was he who arranged the purchase of the Friske Property in 1849, and immediately began plans for a church. With the aid of the men of the parish he constructed a log chapel on the hill top. Finished in 1850, it was dedicated as St. Peter in Chains church, and located on the Sugar Camp road.

Bishop Hartley in his history of the Diocese of Columbus (3) gives the following account of the Lick Run mission: "In that part of Wheelersburg called Sugar Camp, on account of the many maple sugar trees growing there, two acres of a hillside land were donated in 1852 by Mr. Henry Frische, for the purpose of erecting a Catholic place of worship. The Catholic population was then small, and consisted of German and Irish settlers, who were employed in the coaling for the various furnaces. These sturdy settlers themselves built a strong log Church, and the Rt. Rev. Bishop named it St. Peter in Chains. Occasionally a priest from Cincinnati rode here on horseback, and celebrated the holy sacrifice of the Mass, and administered the sacraments to this scattered flock. As the years rolled on and the congregation increased in numbers, the spiritual welfare of these people was attended to by Rev. Father Rauck (4) of Pine Grove, who rode from there on horseback, a distance of sixteen miles...."

In 1860 Mr. Friske donated another small piece of land on the west side of the church to make the situation more suitable (5). Again on October 19, 1863, he donated another parcel, one acre more or less, apparently providing a roadway (6).

A rectory was built in the autumn of 1863 while Father D.M. Winands was in charge. In November of that year Father Louis Schreiber became the first resident pastor. He was there until 1866, and seems to have gone to St. John's, Lilly, afterwards (7). It is not clear, but the priests probably resided at Lilly for some years and took care of Lick Run from there. Those who served during these years included Revs. H. H. Mayrose, Charles F. Schelhamer, Aloysius Nonnen, Francis Karge, Alexander Istwann, F. Albert, J. Neumayer, Peter J. Weisenberger, Philip Luemmert and P. J. Thurheimer.

When Father John B. Ritter came to Lilly in 1880, he decided to move to Lick Run and reside there. He soon found that the parish had outgrown the little log church. Its location on the hilltop was bad and the roads were often impassable. The need for a new church in a better location was apparent. Accordingly, a more suitable location was bought on Dogwood Ridge, about one mile from Wheelersburg, the site of the present St. Peter's. A frame church, costing $3,000 was built, and dedicated by Bishop Watterson in November, 1885. It is said that the old parsonage on Lick Run was moved to the new site. The "Old" St. Peter's was now the "New" St. Peter's.
